

Dramatic Portraits in Colored Pencil by Jesse Lane

Two-day Workshop, Saturday and Sunday

April 25-26, 2020 9am – 4pm

Jesse Lane and Resolve

Draw a dramatic, realistic portrait with award-winning artist Jesse Lane. Learn the secrets of turning colored pencil into a Fine Art medium, creating works as rich and nuanced as any oil painting.

All skill levels are welcome!

Jesse will guide you step by step, sharing his signature style, including special tips for creating nuanced skin tones, dynamic lighting and compelling composition. Classes are thorough as Jesse breaks down complex rendering into simple steps.

Jesse's dramatic portraits have won awards from the Salmagundi Club, the Colored Pencil Society of America, the International Guild of Realism and International Artist Magazine. Jesse's work has been featured in publications including American Art Collector, International Artist, Southwest Art, Fine Art Connoisseur, The Artist's Magazine, Colored Pencil and Color. He loves sharing his passion for colored pencil in workshops nationwide. Jesse is represented by RJD Gallery in New York. He works out of his home studio in The Woodlands, Texas, alongside his wife, Kinsey, a talented artist, and their two whippets.

Register online at www.cpsa210.org/classesworkshops/

$50 Deposit will hold your spot. Final payment due: March 1, 2020.
No refunds for cancellations after March 1, 2020.

Location: Bothwell Arts Center, 2466 - 8th Street, Livermore, CA

Cost: CPSA DC210 Members $300

Non-members $325

Questions? Contact Paula Greer, president@cpsa210.org
510-584-8739

Sponsored by:

CPSA
Colored Pencil Society of America

District Chapter 210 | San Jose CA